What information we collect from you and why

We will collect your name and email address to allow us to contact you about the research study for which you are completing this form.

How we use your information

We will only ever use your personal information to contact you regarding the activities detailed in the data collection platform. We keep your information securely stored on our servers where access is restricted to authorised staff only.

How we obtain your information

We will ask you for your contact details which we will then store. We will not access your information in any other way.

Who we share your information with

We will not share your information outside the SGUL AMR team.

How long we keep your information for

Your personal data will be kept in line with the data management plan of the AMR study you are engaged with. You may ask for your details to be removed from this database at any time.

What your rights are

You have a right to access your personal data, to object to the processing of your personal data, to rectify, erase, restrict and port your personal data. To request a copy of the personal data we hold for you please contact the SGUL AMR team using the contact details above. If you have queries about any of your other rights regarding our use of your personal data, you should contact the University's Data Protection Officer.

How to make a complaint

If you are unhappy with the way in which your personal data is being processed you may, in the first instance, lodge a complaint with the University Data Protection Officer using the contact details above. If you continue to have concerns thereafter you have the right to contact the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted as below:
